

Corporate Income Tax Agency Launches “CITA Online” to Power New Tax Regime with Seamless Digital Access

Pembroke, Bermuda — 17 July 2025 — The Corporate Income Tax Agency (“CITA”) is pleased to announce the official launch of CITA Online, a secure and user-friendly digital platform developed to support Bermuda’s newly introduced corporate income tax regime.

CITA Online enables corporate taxpayers to:

- Obtain a Tax Identification Number (TIN).
- Submit corporate income tax payments.
- Appoint Authorised Representatives.

CITA Online has been built to support the launch of the new corporate income tax regime, offering businesses a streamlined and modern way to meet their obligations from day one.

“The launch of CITA Online marks a pivotal moment in our journey,” said Mervyn Skeet, Chief Executive Officer of the Corporate Income Tax Agency. “We are proud to introduce a digital-first solution that empowers businesses to meet their obligations with confidence and ease.”

CITA encourages all eligible entities to visit cita.bm and begin fulfilling their tax obligations.

This launch reflects CITA’s commitment to digital innovation, operational excellence, and building trust with stakeholders from the outset.
